

There is too much media consolidation already. Ownership of radio stations, TV, newspapers etc. should be broken up into lots of small individual ownerships. Consolidating the media into the hands of just a few owners is destroying our freedom of speech.